Kauffman's Cross-Country Takes Over School

It was only a matter of time. Ever since the eerily similar white uniforms, unison running, and the secret high-five, it was clear the Cross Country team had goals outside of running in large circles. Their coach, an ex-marine, has led the team to several conference titles and has now led them straight to the administration office, where he remains.

Cross-country runners have diligently obeyed their coach, monitoring the halls and teaching students "If it's raining, we're training. If it's to walk to their thoring [guard], we're ignoring" classes in the Commander Kaufmann most efficient manner. Many students have "PR'd" in getting around school thanks to teamwork in the hallways, such as walking right behind the person in front of them for wind resistance. All first class signs have been replaced with "DFDC Rules" signs or pictures of yellow corn, whose purpose is unknown.

Many changes have been instituted since the cross-country team forcefully took over Deerfield High School. All students have to wear embarrassingly short shorts, revealing singlets, and compression shorts. Obviously, some students have not benefited from this required showing of skin and muscles, or lack thereof.

On the bright side, eating habits have dramatically improved as DFDC "food-watchers" have guaranteed that students get nowhere near the school cafeteria, let alone the soda machine. Also, students are in great mental and physical shape as three-quarters of their classes are entitled "running a lot" and the other quarter being psychology. On a final note, Coach Kauffman (now known as Commander Kauffman) has changed the school mascot to the Buckeye, despite Ohio State's inferiority to their Maize and Blue brethren.

That Hockey Mom Has it Going On

Bristol can I come over after schoo-oo-oo-ool, (After school)
Your Mom's foreign policy is just so coo-oo-oo-ool, (Just so cool)
Did your mom get back from her business trip, (Business trip)
Is she there, or is she tryin' to start a war with Russia (War with Russia)
You know I'm not the little Republicans that I used to be, Your mom is going to be the VP, Palin can't you see.

Bristol's Mom has got it goin' on,
She's all the political experience I want,
And McCain's time left on Earth can't be that long,
Bristol can't you see,
You're just too impregnated for me,
I know her policies be wrong,
But I'm in love with Bristol's Mom.

CASA: Cubs and Sox Alliance

In a stunning movement to show unity for the 2016 Chicago Olympic bid, Jim Henry and William Randolph have announced the start of the Cubs and Sox Alliance (CASA). CASA is spearheaded by Lou Pinella and Ozzie Guillen, who approached the podium today holding hands. Ozzie started the speech by saying, "This is the bleeping best thing to happen to Chicago since I bleep..." before he was torn away from the mike. However, Ozzie punched the security guy in the face and shouted, "And Jay Mariotti is garbage."

Never flustered, Lou Piniella leisurly waddled up to the podium. Five minutes later he explained, "CASA is a way for Chicagoans to get along. Instead of bickering and fighting, why can't we be friends? Together, we can be united in the complete hatred of umpires, those dirty good for nothing scoundrels..." Piniella rambled on; eventually "CASA has been very, very good to me" Sammy Sosa finishing his speech long after anybody cared to listen to him. On his way out, CASA spokesman Sammy Sosa gave Lou a big, friendly baseball slap on the tucas. Some believe he actually slipped Lou some 'roids, but either way Sosa says,

"CASA has been very, very good for me" in his new, completely accent free voice.

One controversial part of the program is the three-strike program. If a CASA member is seen celebrating a Cubs or Sox loss, teasing another CASA member, or even mentioning it has been a 100 years, they receive a strike. There is also a Carlos Zambrano "no-hit" violence policy. Fair or foul, CASA has a lot of potential. Some may balk at the program, but those who jump on it early will find it is a steal. Sure, there might be a few curveballs along the way, but ultimately I think the program will be a home run.

Bristol, do you remember when you're mom cut taxes for special education, (Cut taxes for special education)
Your mom denies all theories except creation, (except creation)
I could tell I liked her from her special lipstick, (Special lipstick)
And the way she said, "We should continue bombing Iraq over ther-re-re-ree," (bomb over there)
And I know that being president is her secret fantasy,
But since McCain is almost dead,
Your mom could really be more than the VP.

The first DECA meeting is tomorrow!! Join. Everybody else is doing it. It is soooooo cool.

"I just tore down a streamer. Lol. I am so funny," A good portion of the student body.

REBUS PUZZLE:

Can you guess the common word or phrase portrayed below?

Last week's answers: Nothing Good On TV, Over Your Time, Safety in Numbers, Over and Over Again

NUMBERS: 91 million

The total number of searches per day on America's most popular search engine: Google. That translates to 2.733 billion searches a month. It is safe to say google is slightly more popular than the Flipside's website, but not quite as popular as DECA.

FACT:

Alaska is the closest state to Russia in the United States. So as the great Fox News has reported, Sara Palin has must have great foreign policy experience. Moreover, Joe Biden is weird. It is important for the Flipside to be neutral.

LIE:

I can say anything I want in the lie section.

CRYPTOGRAM CHALLENGE

DIRECTIONS: This is a simple substitution code, each letter is replaced by a different letter. The first person to solve the cryptogram correctly will win a Flipside t-shirt! (first means first to see Sam Block to redeem shirt)
