

Secret menu of The Crossroads Cafe

It's public knowledge that the Deerfield Crossroads Cafe (yes, this is the official name of the caf) recently added a "popcakes" machine. But what you may not know is that a new underground menu has also emerged. Depending on the time the caf starts serving breakfast and which day you show up, there may be more options. We at the Flipside entered the caf and attempted to uncover these secret items hidden behind all of the smoothies, cookies, and pancakes. Here and only here will you find a full and complete list of all of the items on this menu (except the ones that we forgot about).

Monster Cake

Cost: $4.92

Do you want to feel bad about yourself right after you just had a nutrition talk with your coach the day before? Then the Monster Cake is for you! Unlike most of the items in the caf, the Monster Cake is overpriced, incredibly fattening, and doesn't taste very good. It consists of caf cookies stuffed inside a caf cake in a cup with lime sherbet to top it all off. If you would like it to come on a plate, it will be an extra $.99.

Supreme Sandwich

Cost: $5.83

I know all of you are just craving to die young, and that is what the supreme sandwich is made for! The supreme sandwich is a cheeseburger

Everyone knows about the Bosco Sticks. But what else does the 'caf' have to offer?

stacked on top of a chicken patty on top of two hot dogs on top of a regular burger. Don't forget every topping imaginable is on this bad boy that has a bagel bun that sits on top. Don't worry! If you don't feel like going into the caf, since this is essentially made from plastic, it won't expire in the vending machines either!

Caf Sushi

Cost: $15.32

The most expensive item on this list but nonetheless the most amazing. Caf sushi is an extremely unique delicacy. Instead of regular white rice, spanish rice is used in the roll. Instead of seaweed wrap, it uses popcakes. And because of a lack of fish, the caf obviously uses ground up spicy chicken. Hot cheeto bits sprinkled on top complete this dish.

A Sack of Lower

Cost: $13.00

This item is only available for a limited time. While there is really no food inside of the brown paper bag, it costs $13.00 to Instagram a picture of it. Don't fret, it also comes with Caf Coffee, which is like Starbucks, though it comes in less controversial cups.

Note: the only way to access these items is to enter the caf without an ID and form a ten-minute-long line culminating in a security guard who demands an ID. The caf accepts Monopoly money, Canadian dollars, and souls. Eat at your own risk.

The Sandman Finds Himself Unemployed as Students Sleep Less

For those who do not know, The Sandman is a mythological being, similar to The Tooth Fairy, who puts people to sleep and gives them happy dreams with his magic sand. However, the big S is finding it hard to continue with his job due to record-low levels of student sleeping.

"I remember these kids," Sandman fondly reminisces. "I used to put them to sleep every night when they were little, but now they never actually go to bed. Between the thousands of hours of shows and movies on Netflix for them to watch all night and their friends all staying up and texting, I've almost been completely replaced.

"It's especially bad around this time," he added, "because the kids never sleep. They go to school. Of course, their sports are still going, so they cannot physically finish their homework before bedtime because they get home so late.

"And if they do sleep, it is most definitely not my work. I give people happy dreams, but all these kids do is have nightmares about college rejection letters and their chemistry finals. "It's a commission job, so I've been struggling to make ends meet for a while, but this last month it was just impossible to keep going. I filed for unemployment benefits yesterday."

"Wow, that's bad," I sympathized with the Mythological Entity. "Now that you've lost your job, do you have any plans for what you are going to do?"

"Well, I'm never completely out of work. I bet you there are a lot of people who would want to put someone to sleep. But right now I'm focused on trying to win the lottery. Have you seen that thing? Sweet, right?"

The Sandman then disappeared into thin air, his interview complete. Unfortunately, I never got to ask him what the Tooth Fairy was doing with all those teeth.

Corrections

In last issue, we reported that stop signs were just suggestions. According to the law, we were wrong. We also apologize for any harm this may have caused anyone.

It was revealed that the Flipside often contains many typos. Consider this a correction of all of them.

In last issue's front page article on finals, we reported that it helps to stay up until 3 in the morning the day before your final as long as you haven't studied before. We were incorrect; it only helps to stay up that late if you enjoy sleeping through your final.

THE FLIPSIDE CRYPTOGRAM CHALLENGE: Solve the Cryptogram, and then give your copy of The Flipside to Evan Fischhoff. The first person to find him with a correctly solved puzzle will receive a stern look.

Alternate Universe Update: Flipside continues to publish Quote of the Week. Also, students stop complaining about homework and actually do it.
