

2016 Flipside Presidential Roundup

In light of Dr. Dignam's recent promotion to superintendent, it seems Deerfield will once again be in need of a new principal next year. The Flipside has oh so generously pledged the full support of its staff and resources (a few rabid animals and a broken-down typewriter) to the search process. We decided to begin our search for the school's next administrative leader in a place where we knew we'd be sure to find honest, accountable people: the presidential candidate field. We interviewed the leading Democratic and Republican candidates to hear what they would do if given the principal job.

Marco Rubio

"We need to dispel this rumor that the administration doesn't know what it's doing. It knows exactly what it's doing. What would I do as principal? Well, I have a lot of ideas. But first, what's really imperative is this: we need to dispel this rumor that the administration doesn't know what it's doing...."

Hillary Clinton

"When—excuse me, I meant if—I am chosen to be principal, my first priority is going to be transforming Deerfield's technology system. No more Chromebooks, that's for sure. In fact, no more computers. Email is really a thing of the past, some experts have told me. No more email. What ever happened to handwriting notes? Also, school uniforms: mandatory pantsuits. Okay, so when do I start?"

With the Primaries just around the corner, candidates are doing everything possible to get votes.

Donald Trump

"We need to make Deerfield great again! First off, what we need is a wall, a big beautiful wall between the freshmen and the other grades. I'm sure some of the freshmen are good people, but we're building the wall, the freshmen are going to pay for it using their lunch money, and maybe once they're a bit older they can come through the door we're going to build. Also, we're going to be making better deals around here. No more high prices in the caf. I'm going to have Sodexo eating out of my hand. To any teacher that doesn't like the sound of this, guess what? You're fired."

Bernie Sanders

"Here's what a Bernie principalship will look like. First, we're going to clear up our hallways. That means no more backPACs swinging around, hitting people in the shoulder. Second, we're going to fix the rampant class inequality in this school. Some people have three, four even five free periods while some people are working eight full periods a day! Let me be clear: if you are taking a full course load, you should not be failing. This is why we need a minimum grade of a B-. And finally, we are going to do away with the 1% (milk in the caf)."

-Benji Sachs

Political Headlines

Presidential nominee Donald Trump files lawsuit against America for "Not being great anymore." (p.3).

Presidential nominee Donald Trump loses lawsuit against America for "Being the reason America is not great anymore." (p.4)

Bernie Sanders plans to make Mexico pay for the free higher education bill. Donald Trump declares support for part of this plan (p.9).

Seniors to Skip Traditional Senior Prank - Blamed on "Senioritis"

"Senioritis," reports Dr. Hugh Jabutt, local laziness expert, "is traditionally encountered by seniors during their second semester. The primary symptoms include laziness, homework allergies, inability to remember due dates, and excessive sleeping. The only known cure is 'graduation.'"

David Davidson, a totally real senior (I didn't make him up instead of going out and conducting a real interview, I probably promise) offered some comments on how it's been affecting him. "I gotta say, senioritis is just hitting me like a train. I remember I was gonna play this really cool prank. I was gonna walk up to some freshman and point to their shirt. And then I was gonna say 'Hey, you got something on your shirt.' The genius of the prank is that they would most likely have nothing on their shirt, but when they looked down, I would just move my finger up into their face. It was gonna be pretty okay. But, I mean, then I remembered Netflix, and how much I love napping and you know, now that I think about it, I could really use a nap." At that point, David walked away. Attempts to ask him further questions were unsuccessful.

Seniors everywhere are finding themselves losing motivation to do anything.

We also interviewed Anita Bath, another real senior. I assume she said something, but I didn't write it down.

It would appear that David's story is not unique to him. In researching this story, we at the Flipside asked some DHS security guards to survey seniors, asking if they had any pranks in mind, and there was not a single affirmative answer! (Well, there was one, but it was from a freshman, so we're just not gonna count it)

Okay, guys, I'm just gonna be honest here. I don't feel like writing anymore, so let's just end the article now.

-Asher Silverglade

Corrections

In last issue, we reported that doing homework was a waste of time. According teachers, we were wrong. While we still don't see their point, I guess you should do yours.

It was revealed that the Flipside often contains many typos. Consider this a correction of all of them.

In last issue's front page article on finals, we reported that drinking coffee only helps if you drink it right before bed. Further trials proved that it does help; it helps you sleep through your alarm the next morning.

THE FLIPSIDE CRYPTOGRAM CHALLENGE: Solve the Cryptogram, and then give your copy of The Flipside to Evan Fischhoff. The first person to find him with a correctly solved puzzle will receive a disappointing surprise.

Alternate Universe Quote of the week: “Wow, electing Trump as The President of the United States was great! I can’t wait until I lose my basic freedoms!”

REBUS PUZZLES

Can you guess the common word or phrase portrayed below?

I'm a Limb

Puzzles By Evan Fischhoff

A Flipside Un-Original Meme

CRYPTOGRAM CHALLENGE

This is a simple substitution code. Each letter is replaced by a different letter. Try to decode the message or quote below. HINT: the first word ends in “U”

“LEH NU EP, T’WW DHFFEZJ JAG QGYEOZVJD, JAG ZGFHSWTOVUD, PAVJGIGZ JAG AGWW T AVIG JE DHFFEZJ.” - QEUVWQ JZH YF

You!! Yes, You. We, at the Flipside, are looking for new writers, puzzle-makers, poll makers, and just makers in general! If you are a maker, and you would like to get involved, please contact Evan Fischhoff or Jessica Chen at 161fischoffe@student.dist113.org or 161chenj@student.dist113.org. Thank you for reading the Flipside!

SUDOKU

Fill in the grid so each column, row, and 3x3 box has the numbers 1 through 9.

LEVEL: Over 9000

1	5				9		3
3	7			6			2	4
			5		3	7
9	4	5		8		1
				1	2	4
	8		4				9	7
8			2			6	7
5	2		6		1	9
		6	8					3

NOTE: All names and stories are fictional, unless public figures are being satirized. Remember, these are all jokes. We appologize for any material that be may offending; that is not our intention.

What Really Grinds my Gears?¹

By Evan Fischhoff

You know what really grinds my gears?

- O- Politics becoming about insulting the opponent instead of helping the country
- O- Monoply prices in the DHS Cafe
- O- 100 days
- O- Not being able to use Wikipedia as a source on my essays
- O- Having three tests on 100 days
- O- Donald Trump
- O- Heart rate days

¹- As seen on “Family Guy.”

A special thanks to Benjy Sachs and Asher Silverglade for their contributions to this issue. A thanks as well to Jessica Chen for continuing the awesome Dhsflipside.com. This edition's editor was Evan Fischhoff.