

More Headlines

Physics Class Calculates That Raging Bull Is "Very Fun"

Nothing Says Artistic Talent Like Modern Art

Cleverbot to Replace Romney In Presidential Race

Students Outraged Over School-Approved Senior Shirt

By Orson Scott Card

In one of the biggest scandals since last year's senior shirt, the student body is in an uproar over the inappropriate senior shirt. Most of the teenage boys took great offense to the shirt after reading what it said. "Seniors 2013?? What is that supposed to mean?" exclaims incoming Freshman Joey Manila, "It's like the administration is openly making fun of the freshmen. #Freshmen2016" This sentiment is echoed by most freshmen and sophomores throughout the Twittersphere. Their frustration has stemmed from the unconcerned administration, which has never showed any interest at all in what the Senior t-shirts say. The angry underclassmen are too consumed with the deeper meaning on the front of the shirt to even understand the motif on the back of the shirt.

The most scandalous part of the T-Shirt is found on the back, which says "13MOC" instead of "BMOC." This blatantly breaks school code of not using 1337 (Leet) when making senior shirts. In homeroom discussions, teachers adamantly defend the used of 1337-speak. "I think it is quite clever that the shirt utilizes a 'one' and a 'three' instead of a 'B,'" says English teacher Tara Woodridge, "It is nice to see students think originally and critically about the fallacies of society." While some students spent this time pondering over the "fallacies of society" on their poorly hidden iPhones, Senior Link Meek is bothered by his teacher's opinion. "Does she not know how offensive this is to women? BMOC means Big Man on Campus and now no one knows that thanks to the 13." Meek thinks that this shirt becomes misleading as some people might believe that their school has only 13 men on campus. "At no points does this controversial shirt acknowledge the woman on campus or off campus!" Meek cries.

This discussion found its way into most science and math classrooms, wasting valuable time that would have been spent reviewing actual material for the final. One science teacher, Jack Portland, told The Flipside, "Yeah, the shirt doesn't bother me at all, but it was great not having to talk about stupid photosynthesis anymore. You can only spend so much time talking about plants."

Despite what controversy has enthralled DHS, at least we can all find comfort in the fact that our next homeroom discussions aren't for another three or more months.

Juniors Use Leftover Baking Flour in Courtyard for Giant Cake

By Steven Stephens

After an unpublicized incident in the school courtyard, several hundred juniors scrounged up the baking flour for one purpose—sponge cake. The most elusive of all white, puffy cakes, the sponge cake is a coveted delicacy the juniors wished to create. As many people do not know, sponge cake can only be made with flour picked up off the ground by seniors throwing it for a senior prank. Therefore, this endeavor was an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The head of the Junior Pastry Team Hugh Muffen has been having a difficult time leading this project. "The main problem is, the seniors are too perfect. They never do anything against school policy and are incredibly kind to underclassmen." This fact could not be denied because there was not one instance where seniors dropped stinkbombs on the X-hall stairs. Muffen is hoping for a little more luck in the ingredient department as he waits for the seniors to cover the I and J hallways with copious amounts of raw eggs. Senior Jackie Sun thinks that this is a "totally safe idea where like no one can get hurt...unless they're stupid."

Jackie Sun and Hugh Muffen have been dating ever since their escapade in detention after they both were caught buying cafeteria food without an ID. Under the watchful eye of Ms. Hurdler, Sun played games on the computer and did not get caught. Sources say that they have been collaborating on the senior pranks all year and plan on one last prank. "We were going to buy 3 pigs numbered 1, 2, and 4 and set them loose in the school, but the pigs we bought never came with a number on their backs," Sun reflects. "This was the most original idea I have ever come up with and no one in my school had ever heard about it." As school deans are cracking down on the culprits, Muffen takes his time to make a life-size replica of Tim Tebow and stick him inside the sponge cake.

The sponge cake is a culmination of all the time the juniors did not spend studying for the Prairie State ACT with no writing. And to all those expectant sophomores out there, Muffen says "Don't worry, when we are finished eating our cake, you can pick up the scraps off the floor and make doughnut holes."

It's our first time. Give us a break.

THE FLIPSIDE CRYPTOGRAM CHALLENGE: Solve the Cryptogram, write down your name, and then find and give your copy of The Flipside to Nate Block. There will be a drawing to see who will win a sweet Flipside t-shirt!

QUOTE "Dude, guess what? I signed my name as Luke Skywalker on the petition to end Wednesday Discussions!"
 –Senior who really wants freshmen to have 4 years of Homeroom Discussions

REBUS PUZZLES

Can you guess the common word or phrase portrayed below?

	old 7:15 old 12:32 old 9:45 old 11:02 old 3:19 old 6:51 sake gluttony lust @ E	1. 4. 2. 5. 3. 6.

Last issue's answers: PRETTY PLEASE WITH A CHERRY ON TOP, FIFTH GRADE, PARALYZE, BACKSTREET BOYS

NUMB3RS

3

Number of people who have five finals next week.

120

People who tell their friends they have five finals next week.

CRYPTOGRAM CHALLENGE

This is a simple substitution code. Each letter is replaced by a different letter. Try to decode the message or quote below. HINT: T=O
 Congratulations to last issue's winner: No One

"D'ZF QFFV WT SMVMLM, MVL D'ZF MUKMPE RTWWFV WIF DAHYFEEDTV WIMW D STXUL WMCF WIF STXVWYP TZFY DV MQTXW WKT LMPE." ~OTV EWFKMYW

Last issue's answer: "IT'S AMAZING THAT THE AMOUNT OF NEWS THAT HAPPENS IN THE WORLD EVERY DAY ALWAYS JUST EXACTLY FITS THE NEWSPAPER." ~JERRY SEINFELD

SUDOKU

LEVEL: Honors World History Final

Fill in the grid so each column, row, and 3x3 box has the numbers 1 through 9.

4			3	2
	3		1					8
	1	7		8		3	6
6	9			7				4
	7	2		4		8	3
8				1			9	2
	2	1		6		9	5
9					1		8
				3	2			1

NOTE: All names and stories are fictional, unless public figures are being satirized. Remember, these are all jokes.

To contact us, email 13keeshinz@student.dist113.org.

For more information and more content, visit dhsflipside.com.

JUMBLE

Unscramble these four ordinary jumbles, and use the letters in circles to answer the final question.

WHAT DID THE LITTLE MERMAID WEAR TO STUDY FOR HER MATH FINAL?

ELBAZ

RBIGED

RLAAT

PRIDEA

AN !

Last issue's answers: DOUBT, EXOTIC, OWNED, DROOP

Why did the motorcycle have to stop in the middle of the race? IT WAS TWO TIRED!

The Flipside is always looking for new writers, puzzle makers, and distributors. E-mail us if you're interested. Really, we want your help.